

IF Hosts Annual Missionary Conferette; 'Facing the Field' Is Theme of Event

By Bob Adams

George Fox college will host the annual Inter-Varsity Christian Fellowship Foreign Missions Fellowship Missionary Conferette next Saturday, May 9. This year will mark the third time the conferette has been held at GFC.

Programs, distributed to both GFC students and IVCF-FMF members throughout the state this week, reveal a heavy schedule for the day. Beginning at 9:00 a. m. with registration and coffee hour, and continuing through 8:00 p. m. with "The Logical Conclusion", ten items appear on the program.

Theme for the conferette is "Facing the Field". This theme will be carried out by five missionary speakers, a missionary film, and by letter direct from the mission field. The film, "Regions Beyond", was previewed by GFC students last winter. It is scheduled for 10:00 a. m.

Marion Doble, sister of GFC graduate Priscilla Doble, and missionary to primitive New Guinea nationals will speak at 11:00 a. m. Assigned as an inspirational hour, Miss Doble will discuss "The Word of God in the Stone Age".

Letter From Mrs. Wheeler

Letters from IVCF and FMF alumni now on the mission field will be read at 11:45 a. m. Scheduled to be included will be letters from Mrs. Alice Wheeler, former campus nurse, recently sent to Rankanda Leper Mission in Africa by the GFC student body.

After lunch, Mrs. Mable Gwinn, reputational secretary of Gospel Recordings, Inc., will review some of the fields of missionary work open to college graduates. Mrs. Gwinn will be followed by a panel discussion lead by Oliver Olson, missionary to China and Japan. The panel will discuss a missionary candidate's preparation. At 2:00 p. m. Dale Kietzman, translator with Wycliffe Bible Translators in Mexico will detail some of the problems faced by missionaries.

The GFC a cappella choir will entertain the evening session of the conferette at 7:30 p. m. It will be followed at 7:30 p. m. by a half hour of student expression concerning the mission field.

Wesche to Speak

The closing hour at 8:00 p. m. will be given Dr. Kenneth Wesche, professor at Western Evangelical Seminary and former missionary to China. He will summarize the day in "The Logical Conclusion."

More than 100 students from most of the Oregon IVCF and FMF chapters are expected to attend the conferette. All sessions will be held in the administration building auditorium and are open to the public.

Selective Service Tests Given May 21

Major General Lewis B. Hershey, Director of Selective Service, today reminded college students that applications for the May 21 Selective Service College Qualification Test must be submitted to the Educational Testing Service, Princeton, New Jersey, not later than midnight May 11.

The May 21 test is primarily for students prevented by illness or other emergencies from taking the test April 23, but General Hershey emphasized that this did not bar a qualified student from taking the test if his application is mailed before the deadline. He also stressed that students who have a certificate of admission for the April 23 test which they failed to use on the assigned date must submit new applications if they wish to take the May 21 test. The test certificates, he pointed out, will not admit a student to the May 21 test.

Application Blanks Necessary

The student may obtain a new application from any Selective Service local board. The application blanks should be submitted as soon as possible to the Educational Testing Service, Princeton, New Jersey. Administrators of the test, who, in turn, will mail the admission certificate direct to the student.

Highlights of the day include the float parade in the morning, the coronation and May pole winding, Trefian tea and baseball game.

The festive day will begin with the traditional breakfast sponsored by the Student Christian Union at which the Queen and the Court will be honored guests. Breakfast will be served from 7 a. m. until 9 a. m. and the charges will be 65 cents for adults and 35 cents for students.

The float parade, beginning at 10:30 will start at the college, proceed through town and back to the campus again. Winner of the trophy last year was the Foreign Missions Fellowship.

Under the direction of Muriel Hoover and Leland Brown, the athletic tournament will follow the parade at 11:30 and will feature the horseshoe and archery finals. Lunch will be served free of charge to all visitors at noon.

Featured as the main event of the day will be the Queen's coronation at 2 p. m., when Gene Comfort, Prince Consort, will crown Queen Patricia Keppinger. Preceding the coronation will be the winding of the Maypole.

Members of the court chosen by the queen and prince will include Nancy Hald and John Wood, Lucy Edmundson and Jim DeLapp, Janet Hinshaw and Verne Martin and Carol Gossard and Gene Mulkey. Trainbearers will be Bennie Andrews and Jerry Miller, with Connie Andrews acting as crown bearer.

America in International Perspective

By Mackey W. Hill

The current exchange of sick war prisoners has brought to light some other issues in the East-West conflict. The returning repatriated American soldiers brought accounts of comrades in arms that were equally sick or even worse who are yet retained by the Communists.

But the most shocking stories were of the brutal atrocities perpetrated upon UN prisoners of war, especially in the initial phases of the Korean war when hundreds of men were murdered and marched to death, and the heartless neglect of the health of thousands of prisoners so that malnutrition and contagious disease were allowed to do their worst.

Senatorial debate has continued on the so-called tidelands oil bill but the prospects are that this measure will be successfully brought to a vote in the first week of May. Opponents of this measure point out that this is only the beginning of "a give away policy" of Federal property that may not be limited to the submerged oil lands but the principle may be applied to all Federal property including power plants, Western lands, etc. Proponents insist that this is a measure upon which the election returns spoke most eloquently.

At the hundred day mark, appraisals pro and con have been made of the Eisenhower Administration. Vice-President Nixon set the tempo by presenting the pro-Administration case in his speech Thursday, April 24. He cited what he called the achievements of the Administration. Meanwhile on the hundredth day, leading Democratic Senators in senate speeches evaluated critically the Administration. They pointed out as weaknesses what they considered to be evidence of inexperience such as vacillation and inaction. They were alarmed at what they considered to be the continued drift along with "McCarthyism". These may prove to be the opening guns in the 1954 election campaign.

During these last three days of April, 1953, the western world has viewed with increasing apprehension the steady advance of Communist military forces in the Laos section of Indo-China. Some gains have been reported in the re-opened negotiations at Panmunjom but on the basic issue of the choice of a neutral suitable to both sides there is a stalemate.

Welcome to May Day

May Day—1953. This is a day when we, as students of George Fox college, have the privilege of welcoming our guests to the campus.

It is our desire that each visitor will make himself completely at home. You are invited to go through the dormitories and other buildings. A thirty-five acre wood campus is for your inspection.

We especially invite you to one of the more recent additions to the athletic plant, the conditioning gym. This is a modern weight room. It is in the south, upstairs portion of the gymnasium.

As students of GFC, we are justifiably proud of our well-established reputation of having a friendly campus atmosphere. We urge each guest to take full advantage of this.

Acquaint yourself with the May Day royalty, the students of George Fox, and the faculty. Any questions you have in regard to our school will be gladly answered.

So, we welcome you to our campus with the sincere desire that you might enjoy your day immensely.
—R.B.

A Contrast

How strange it is that on one side of an iron curtain May Day symbolizes strength in arms and in purpose of world communism, while on the other side May Day is the symbol of peaceful beauty and the reawakening of life in nature.

George Fox college joins many other schools today in a festival of May. We celebrate by crowning a Queen to rule over us in this time of merriment and by honoring a Prince Consort who will escort the Queen.

Everybody loves a parade and as we are no exception we prepare floats and give further recognition to the day.

We wind a Maypole in a colorful ceremony set to gay music and then a baseball game follows.

To close the day's festivities a tribute in music is given to the Queen and her royal court.

As we celebrate with all the gaiety that is May Day, across the waters another people honor the same day, but in a much different way.

To the subjected people of Russia and her satellites it is a time for a parade too—a military parade.

It is to them a day of hero worship and a day to show the world their armed strength.

Why the difference?

We in America have a heritage of Christian humanity. We have been taught the four freedoms all our life and take it for granted that we may work where we please, worship as we please and even celebrate the holidays as we choose, as long as we do not harm our fellow citizens.

We call it democracy, but remember, there would be no democracy, as we know it, if it were not for Christianity.

Russia is a land ruled by a Godless military and Communistic government. To them the individual is nothing. All must center around the state.

As we celebrate today, let us remember the peoples of the world who are not able to do likewise.

May Day is not ordinarily thought of as a religious day, nor should it necessarily be. But let us not leave out our thanks to God for the passing of winter, a new spring and the right to celebrate May Day as a time of peaceful beauty and happiness.

Miss Mary Sutton Completes Thirty-Eighth Year at George Fox

By Bob Byrd

One of the finest teachers on the George Fox college faculty is Mary Sutton, instructor in German I and II. Miss Sutton is the senior member of the faculty, having taught at GFC for 38 years.

Being the college registrar for the last 11 years has limited Miss Sutton's class room instruction, but through the years she has taught history, geography, botany and English in the old academy as well as advanced Latin and biological courses in the college.

In reminiscing about the school's history as she has lived it, Miss Sutton recalled that her first year at GFC was the first year that Wood-Mar hall was used. At that time part of the academy was in Wood-Mar, but due to state regulations it was moved to Hoover hall and the college occupied Wood-Mar in its entirety.

"For my first year as an instructor, I was house mother at Kanyon hall. I was very green and inexperienced," recalls Mary Sutton, "but everything went along fine."

"At that time Kanyon was the only dormitory; with the boys on the top floor, the girls on the first floor and the dining hall in the basement.

Queen's Welcome

As Queen of May, I extend to you a most personal and delightful welcome to the May Day festivities of George Fox college.

To those who have spent former days here, may this celebration bring back happy memories.

To you who are here for the first time, may you feel akin to the spirit which we commemorate today.

My wish to each one of you is that you may join together in the activities and make this a most pleasurable and enjoyable day.

As spring brings to mind the fragrance and beauty of flowers, may you be more aware of the sweetest flower of them all, the Lily of the Valley.
—QUEEN PATRICIA I

May Day---A Time of Festivity

By Marjorie Larrance

After the fatiguing experience of clean up day and test week it is doubtful if many students will be in a suitable condition to enter wholeheartedly into the frivolities concerned with the honoring of Queen Patricia I, Prince Consort Gene and their Royal Court. Perhaps the coming of May will bring with it the usual new life and zest for living.

As one views the extensive preparations for the day, it might appear that May Day is a modern invention; but on probing into history we find that May day was an old custom long before our fore-fathers set foot on the shores of the New World.

May is generally regarded as a time for gladness and merry-making. It symbolizes the outbreaking of life and beauty in nature. From early times the first day of May has been a time for joyous festivities.

In England during the middle ages it was customary for all people, both high and low—even the court itself—to go at an early hour on the first May morning to pick flowers and branches. About sunrise these were carried back to the towns and villages with the accompaniment of horns and all outward indications of merriment. The center of this procession was occupied by May pole, glorious with wreaths and ribbons.

In small villages the pole was set up for the day only, but in London and larger cities the poles were constructed of durable wood and were permanently erected. After arriving home, the people decorated their doors and windows with flowers and hawthorne branches. They named the hawthorne bloom "the May," and called

"There were only five girls and ten boys living on the campus. The rest were from the Newberg area," Miss Sutton explained.

Mary Sutton was born in Michigan, but received her high school training in Montana. She earned her A.B. from the University of Washington and later received her M.A. from the University of Oregon.

When asked about her most exciting experience at GFC, Miss Sutton recalled the day in 1925 when the college, then Pacific college, received accreditation. She said a school holiday was proclaimed and an impromptu celebration with parades and singing took place.

"One thing that has impressed me," Miss Sutton remarked, "is the growth of the campus. Since I have been here, the science hall, gymnasium, library, music hall, dining hall and a remodeled Kanyon hall have been added to the grounds.

"Also the hay field in front and to the north of Wood-Mar have been transformed into beautiful lawns."

Miss Sutton, a birth-right Quaker, has also been very active in her church. She has been a member of the Newberg Friends church since 1919, having taught every Sunday school class in the church from the beginners to the elders.

Also active in Oregon Yearly Meeting circles, Miss Sutton has been YM recording clerk for a number of years and holds the same office in the Newberg monthly meeting.

"I have never ceased to love the college," states Miss Sutton. "Having taught here for 38 years I have seen the school through its ups and downs and its courage and Christian spirit is very dear to me.

"The school's physical plant has increased and it is raising academically, therefore I see no reason why we should not regain our accreditation within a very few years."

ed the ceremony "the bringing home of May." They spoke of the expedition into the woods as "going a-maying."

The loveliest maid of the village was crowned with flowers as the "Queen of May." She was placed in a little bower, where she sat in state receiving the homage and admiration of the youthful revelers who danced and sang around her.

Margaret Weber, Norman Winters Engagement Told

Latest engagement revealed on George Fox college campus is that of Margaret Weber, senior, to sophomore Norman Winters.

Favors, cats in pastel bags, were distributed among the students at the weekly dress-up meal Wednesday evening, April 22. The cat was let out of the bag by this message, "For Margaret in 1954 it will be Winters forever more.

Miss Weber's diamond is set in a white gold ring with three small diamonds on either side. The bride-to-be wore a dusty-rose wool suit on which was pinned a white carnation and sweet pea corsage, a gift from her fiancé.

Margaret plans to attend school at Oregon State during its summer session and teach this fall. Norman will continue his college work. A summer wedding is planned for 1954.

Both of the couple are from Greenleaf, Idaho. Margaret is the daughter of Mrs. Estel Weber. Norman's parents are Arthur and Gwendolyn Winters, former students of George Fox college, now principal and business instructor at Greenleaf academy.

Noteworthy News Nuggets

By Betty Brown

Here it is May. That sunny month when flowers bloom and young men's thoughts turn to . . . excuse me Mr. Tennyson. Well anyway, spring is here and today is May Day. Enjoy the day, but remember all on our campus aren't this festive. Interesting things do happen, however. Here are just a few.

When the Maypole Winds

The Maypole winding ceremony that you will see this afternoon, has practiced nightly for the past two weeks under the direction of Melda Chandler. The girls' ballerina length dresses will be a change in the usual tradition, but will be a blessing in case of rain. Maybe we shouldn't mention that.

Baritone Solos in Portland

Junior Dick Zeller was guest soloist for the revival meeting at First Friends church, Portland, last week. Roy Clark, pastor of Vancouver Friends and former GF choir director, was the evangelist. Alumnus Ronald Crecelius, pastor of Forest Home church, was song leader.

Wyman Visits Campus

Visitor on the campus recently was Larry Wyman, '52, now working towards his master's degree and teaching on a fellowship at University of Oregon. Larry teaches a class in freshman composition and reports they are the same caliber there as here.

Senior Co-ed Returns

Maribeth McCracken, senior, is back at school after having been secretary for state representative George Layman at legislature in Salem. Representative Layman, also Newberg's mayor, spoke to the family class Thursday on divorce and how to prevent it.

Boys Travel South

Garth Reece and Ted Eichenberger traveled hurriedly to southern California and back last weekend. The reason for the trip was the wedding of a friend in Whittier.

Students Go Smelting

Taking advantage of the smelt run in the Sandy river were instructor Enid Briggs; Bob, Jennie, and John Adams; Myra Sullivan; Nancy Foley; Marjorie Larrance; Yvonne Hubbard and Jerry Carr. Approximately 200 pounds were brought back to the campus where they were cleaned and frozen. A few of them were enjoyed by WAA members at their retreat at Twin Rocks, Oregon last weekend.

Miss Haines Given Shower

Verdella Green entertained a group of GF co-eds and Portland friends at a shower in honor of Ellen Haines last Friday at her Portland home. Ellen plans to be married early in July. Her new name will be Mrs. Verne Martin.

Uncle Sam Calls Again

Uncle Sam again made a visit to the GF campus. This time he called on sophomore Norman Winters and Clinton Brown. They will be taking their preliminary physical examinations soon.

Class Has Bird Trouble

Recently Merrill Dade's comparative anatomy held a very unusual session. As is their regular practice they began class at 6 a. m. and dismissed at 10. Early in the period a swallow flew in an open window at which various class members including the instructor exerted awkward efforts in snaring with a butterfly net. Photography is a hobby of Mr. Dade's. But after an extensive chase, the bird was too winded to hold his head up. While Mr. Dade regulated his camera, the students posed the bird, propping his head and anchoring his feet with rubber bands. All was set. The exhausted bird fluttered mildly and with a bolt of energy soared upward. Mr. Dade, however, didn't give up defeated. He took a shot of the entire class laughing at the scene of the incident.

Well, I guess that's enough for now. Hope you're better informed than you were before. Have run today. 'Bye.

GF Students Okay By-Law Revisions In Thursday Chapel

Three by-laws were voted into the constitution in associated students chapel Thursday. "This is the culmination of the reorganization of student government," reports President Ralph Beebe. "The new constitution which was adopted March 12 left provision for further investigation by three committees."

One committee, headed by Harold Weesner, presented a revision of the appropriation of student affairs fees to student organizations.

Jack Wing headed a committee which decided awards to be given student officers.

The final committee, with Leland Brown as chairman, decided the basis for special honors, such as Homecoming Queen and May Day royalty. There was considerable discussion and amendment before this was adopted into the constitution.

SPORTS SIDELIGHTS

By Ron Barnick

This afternoon, weather permitting, the Quakers will again vie athletically with the rival Reed's. Victims of one loss and one tie in football, and two losses in basketball this year, the locals hope to show themselves capable of victory with another diamond win over the Portlanders.

Lefty "Cub" Grimm has shown up well, especially in number of strikeouts thus far. Surprising swatsmen this semester include shortstoppers Don Lamm, outfielder Leland Brown, and pitcher Grimm, who team up with first sacker Verne Martin to top the "hit" parade in averages and the all important RBT's.

Fans who witnessed the April 23 Linfield JV game here saw one of the better played games of several seasons. Not only did Grimm collect a 2-0 shutout, but both squads played errorless ball afield, and the general tenor of the game was pleasant.

With the washout of Tuesday's scheduled meet at Reed, the abbreviated 1953 track program at GFC closes, according to Coach George Bales. The weather, coupled with an insufficient number of track aspirants, and outside employment are responsible for this curtailment.

Track as a major sport here has definite possibilities, if more men could participate. Bob Adams and Norman Winters both have experience as 1952 lettermen. Last year Norman raced the 880 in 2:07.0. "Cubby" Grimm's high school records included 5'9 3/4" in the high jump, 20'6" for the broad jump, 16.4 time in high hurdles, and 10.7 seconds for the 100-yard dash. Another potential GFC trackster is freshman Bob Fiscus.

Team up and train these fellows with a number of the others who possess track inclinations, and we'll predict a successful track team for George Fox college. Coach George Bales and these four boys, plus the others who worked out, deserve many thanks for their efforts in promoting track here at school. As a suggestion, perhaps an intramural track meet would be appropriate.

Did you know that . . .

In high school and college at Hiram, Ohio (south of Cleveland), Merrell Dade, GFC's biology professor, was a leading runner in the 440 and 880 yard dashes, and right end in football?

Coach George Bales in 1939 won the state high school wrestling championship for the 125 pound class?

GFC's baseball battery of Darwin "Cub" Grimm and Dick Zeller are roommates in Edwards hall?

The college's conditioning gym has newly installed fluorescent lighting?

Several of our baseball players and fans have already witnessed Portland's Beavers play at Vaughn Street this season. Watching the professionals "play for pay" provides one of the best ways to learn good baseball techniques, and to improve one's game.

Rain, too, has slowed down progress in the horseshoe tourney. Tournament participants include Melda Chandler, Muriel Hoover, Joyce Hoover, Rosemary Ramsey, Enid Briggs, Glennetta Randall, Virginia Peters, Yvonne Hubbard, Alice Hodson, Harry Ryan, Jack Hoskins, Leland Brown, Jerry Carr, Roger Stephen, Ralph Beebe, Dick Zeller, Paul Stanfield, Clint Brown, Johnny Adams, Bob Fiscus, Jim Leidke, Jack Wing, and Dave Elliott. Let's hope these and the archery play-offs can be completed and school champions named.

Quakerettes Drop Opener to Linfield

The Quakerettes came out on the bottom side of a 10-8 score in their season opener with Linfield college.

The home team got off to a good start, but lost their grip considerably in the second and fifth innings, allowing four runs in each. Judging from the records, the loss was definitely on errors.

Alice Hodson's three base hit in the seventh inning gave the Quakerettes two badly needed runs.

Joyce Hoover, freshman, did a good job as hurler, allowing only two walks in six innings. She was relieved by her sister, Muriel in the seventh. Muriel gave up three hits, but had a perfect no walk record.

Grimm Blanks Wildkittens on Three Hits; Quakers Entertain Reed Griffins Today

Lamm, Andrews Bat Home Team To Win in 2-0 Tilt

Behind the three-hit pitching of Darwin "Cub" Grimm, the George Fox nine blanked the Linfield JV squad 2-0.

The visitors were retired in order in the first frame. As the Foxmen took their turn it was a different story. Sammy Andrews started things off with a long double to left. Don Lamm, who is clipping the ball at a .667 pace, worked a two and two count and drove a hard line single into left center. On the play Andrews scored with the first run.

The Linfield crew then tightened up, and not until the fourth inning did the Quakers threaten. Lamm again got on base via an infield hit which was a slow roller to short. A few minutes later he moved to second on a walk to Verne Martin, went to third on a fly out to deep center by Dick Zeller, and scored on Cub Grimm's infield hit.

The game was highlighted by Grimm's control. He struck out eight, and walked only one. The freshman southpaw was throwing a good fast ball and an excellent curve.

A strong fielding Quaker squad played errorless ball and executed a double play which pulled them out of a hole.

GF Tops Concordia For Third Straight

The George Fox baseballers Thursday upset Concordia's Cavaliers 5-4 for their third consecutive win of the 1953 season. Three hits paired with five runs in the second inning, plus a neat six-hit hurling performance by freshman Don Lamm, gave the locals the victory in the Portland contest.

Righthander Lamm, in making his college pitching debut, limited the opposition to a trio of markers in the second frame, and a lone tally in the seventh.

May Day Classic Features Portland Nine on Local Field

This afternoon at 2:30 p. m. the George Fox baseball nine meets the rival Reed Griffins on the local diamond in their annual May Day classic. The Quakers, who April 17 topped Reed 16-5, hope to make this the fourth straight win in two years over the Portland club. In last year's May Day affair, GFC outdid Reed, to score a 12-8 victory.

Probable starting pitcher is Lefthander "Cubby" Grimm, with Dick Zeller behind the dish. Returning to first base is veteran Verne Martin, with Sammy Andrews likely at the keystone sack, Dave Elliott third, and freshman Don Lamm stationed at short stop. Making up the Quaker garden crew are Leland Brown, Clint Brown, Rog Stephen, Fred Sievers, Jack Hoskins, and Ron Barnick.

Following today's mix the local lads travel to McMinnville Tuesday, May 5, for a 2:30 return game with the Linfield Junior Varsity. April 23 GFC nipped these same JV's 2-0 on the local lot. The season's final encounter is tentatively set for Friday, May 8 (instead of May 9), when the Quakers entertain Concordia's Cavaliers in a 2:30 fray here.
